Wes' Comment: This video clearly reveals whom Pope Francis (the people's Pope) wants to welcome back to Earth as a very public figure—the Lord of the AIF, who can be directly linked to Lucifer (see the Wes Penre Papers). I am talking about Lord En.ki, whom I exposed in the Wes Penre Papers as being the Overlord of the ETs who have controlled and manipulated mankind behind the scenes since the beginning of time, in a sense (potentially En.ki's son, Lord Marduk, will play a role in this as well).

There is a reason why this Jesuit Priest became the current Pope at this particular time, and the creepy Ratzinger had to go. There is a reason why Pope Francis wants to connect with people on an average level, and there's a reason why he wants to be so liked and admired by Catholics as well as non-Catholics. There is a reason why he is saying that all religions are accepted as valid.

It seems to me that this Last Pope (if we believe prophecies) may be the one to welcome and baptize the Lord of Lords as the God of a World Religion—the Religion of the New 'Golden Age,' which accepts all religions as One.

It doesn't matter what you and I think about Prophecy; the fact is that there are those who are working very, very hard to make them come true. That is what it is all about. The Prophecies are "blueprints" that certain minions of the ET controllers are here to follow—instructions or protocols, if you will.

Something is bound to happen soon. I don't have any time frame, but it's easy to see the writing on the wall, isn't it?

Thanks goodness we know enough not to be fooled!
